

Dr. Sabine Martin

Technical Assistance to Brownfields Coordinator

Center for Hazardous Substance Research

Education

- Ph.D. Justus-Liebig-Universitaet, Giessen, Germany, 1990
- M.S. Justus-Liebig-Universitaet, Giessen, Germany, 1985

Registration and Certification

- Professional Geologist, State of Kansas, License # 109
- Professional Geologist, State of Nebraska, License # G-0117
- 8 Hour OSHA Manager Training, 1990 (Annual Refresher)
- 8 Hour Competent Person Excavation, 1993

Areas of Interest and Experience

Dr. Martin has over 25 years of experience in all aspects associated with contaminated sites, including brownfields. As the Technical Assistance to Brownfields communities (TAB) coordinator, she directs a program responsible for technical assistance to communities in 10 states.

- Specific research areas include: Site assessment; Soil and groundwater remediation; Site reuse/revitalization; Resources for communities dealing with blighted properties; Urban agriculture; Community planning

Contact Information

104 Ward Hall
Kansas State University
Manhattan, KS 66506
Phone: (785) 532-6474
Fax: (785) 532-5985
Email: smartin1@ksu.edu