

GO NATIVE: FROM PLAIN TO PRAIRIE WORKSHOP SERIES

STEPS TO RESTORE, MANAGE & MAINTAIN PRAIRIE ON YOUR PROPERTY, HOSTED AT LAWRENCE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Cooperatively sponsored by:

Grassland Heritage Foundation & Douglas County Conservation District

Preparing for a Restoration

Workshop 1: February 26, 6:30 p.m.

1. Plant Identification: Craig Freeman, Kansas Biological Survey
2. Available Resources: Tim Miller, Natural Resources Conservation Service
3. Q&A

Conducting a Restoration

Workshop 2: March 12, 6:30 p.m.

1. How to Restore a Prairie: Tim Miller
2. Tools Available for Restoration: Randy Winchester, Douglas County Conservation District and Brad Rueschhoff, Kansas Department of Wildlife, Parks, and Tourism
3. Q&A

Prairie Management & Controlling Invasive Species

Workshop 3: April 9, 6:30 p.m.

1. Ongoing Prairie Management: Frank Norman, Norman Ecological Consulting
2. Identifying and Controlling Invasive Species: Craig Freeman
3. Q&A

Restored Prairie Tour: Saturday May 30. Meet at 8:45 a.m. at the SE corner of Wal-Mart parking lot (6th Street) and carpool to two restored prairies in Douglas County that range in size, year, and native plant species. Rain date is Saturday June 6.

All lectures will be held at the Lawrence Public Library Auditorium, 707 Vermont St. Lawrence, KS 66044

No fee, RSVP requested. Open to the public. Resource materials and refreshments will be provided.

Questions & RSVP Call 785.843.4260 x3 or email Jenica.nelson@ks.nacdnet.net

