

THE CLIMATE EMERGENCY:

The Case for Immediate Action by Craig Wolfe

April 11, 2017

3:30-5:30pm

KSU Leadership Studies Building, Town Hall

*Science Cafe discussion with Craig Wolfe - 7:00-8:00pm at Radina's in Aggieville

What can and must individuals do to avert the worst consequences of the climate crisis? As part of Craig Wolfe's role in Al Gore's Climate Reality Leadership Corps, he uses slides prepared by the Climate Reality Project along with his own to demonstrate the seriousness of the climate emergency and to provide actions we must take before the clock runs out on our window of opportunity to fight the climate crisis.
