

2019 Fourteenth Annual Dialog on Sustainability:

Climate Change and Storm Water Management

Fiedler Hall Atrium & Auditorium, Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas

Saturday, July 20, 2019

Program Agenda

8:00 a.m.	Registration, Poster and Display Setup - Atrium
8:30	Welcome and Goals of Dialog - Larry Erickson
8:35	Kate Nelson - Wildcat Creek Watershed as a Living Laboratory
8:55	Chad Bunker - Wildcat Creek Watershed: Plans for Resiliency
9:15	Break - View Posters and Exhibits
9:30	Small Group Dialogs Breakout Sessions
11:00	Break
11:15	Mary Knapp - Climate Change and Precipitation in Kansas
11:35	Lee Skabelund - Green Action Property Owners can take to Reduce Stormwater Runoff
11:55	Lunch (provided) - View Posters and Displays
1:00 p.m.	Tom Jacobs - Climate Resilience Strategy and Green Infrastructure in Kansas City
1:20	Vahid Rahmani - Climate Change: Impact on Stormwater
1:40	Break
2:00	Large Group Dialog on Stormwater Management
3:15	Break
3:30	Large Group Dialog - Donna Schenck-Hamlin Facilitator
4:00	Closing Comments – Larry Erickson

Small Group Breakout Session Dialog Topics

1. Developing Climate Resiliency Plans - TBD: Durland 1107 (Fiedler Auditorium)
2. Wildcat Creek Watershed - TBD: Durland 1107 (Fiedler Auditorium)
3. Rain Gardens and Rain Barrels: Actions to Reduce Runoff - TBD: Durland 1061
4. Floodplain Management for Human and Ecosystem Health - TBD: Durland 1066

Group Breakout Session Dialog Topics (tentative)

1. Wildcat Creek Watershed Living Laboratory Activities
2. Development of Information for the Community on Past Flooding
3. Finding Locations for Rain Gardens and Participants
4. Finding Funding for Projects
5. Identifying Incentives to Take Action
6. What can be done by K-State, City of Manhattan, Riley County, Home Owners, Citizens, Fort Riley, Farmers?
7. Who are the experts in our community?